Person-Centered Plans

The person-centered service plan must be developed through a person-centered planning process.

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) have identified what needs to be included in a person-centered service plan:

- The person-centered planning process is driven by the individual
- Includes people chosen by the individual
- provides necessary information and support to the individual to ensure that the individual directs the process to the maximum extent possible
- Is timely and occurs at times/locations of convenience to the individual
- Reflects cultural considerations/uses plain language
- Includes strategies for solving disagreement
- Offers choices to the individual regarding services and supports the individual receives and from whom
- Provides method to request updates
- Conducted to reflect what is important to the individual to ensure delivery of services in a manner reflecting personal preferences and ensuring health and welfare
- Identifies the strengths, preferences, needs (clinical and support), and desired outcomes of the individual
