Community Meetings: Restoration of Camping, Social Recreation and Other Services

Effective July 1, 2021, changes to the law took effect that restored suspended services for the following:

- Camping services and associated travel expenses;
- Social recreation activities;
- Educational services for children three to 17;
- Nonmedical therapies, including, but not limited to, specialized recreation, art, dance, and music

Please join us to review and discuss the restoration of these services
