

MOVING FROM PAPER TO PRACTICE

Use person-centered practices to turn HCBS requirements into action.

It's ok if you don't have it all figured out.

We can do this together.

You're invited to join others in your community to explore how to use person-centered approaches to put Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) quality standards into action, taking them From Paper to Practice.

ELARC, in partnership with Helen Sanderson Associates USA, is hosting this remote Community of Practice to discuss opportunities and challenges, explore practical tips, and share insights and ideas for supporting people to be more involved in their community.

What is a Community of Practice?

A Community of Practice is a group of people who share a concern or a passion for something they do and learn how to do it better as they interact regularly.

Why should I attend?

You will meet and connect with other providers, family members, and more. Together, you will build a "community" that supports each other and shares knowledge and resources. Members of the Community of Practice offer peer support and encouragement as they collectively work through challenges.
