

When Writing Letters To The Governor Or Other Legislators, Remember To:

1. Write an individualized letter.
Form letters get thrown away.

2. Briefly describe your disability, and how it affects you or your child's daily life. Describe the ways in which regional centers services help you or your child.

3. Encourage your child or your adult child to write their own letter.

4. Include a picture of yourself or your child.

